

THE SMELTER A SUCCESS.

The Beginning of a New Industry in This County.

Yesterday the returns from the small smelter situated near the Gardner mill on the Carson river, was brought to this city. The bullion is the best evidence of the success of the venture, and as there is about five hundred pounds of it at the County Recorder's office, it certainly looks good for the venture and the county in general.

Some months ago Mr. Chas. Root came to this city. He became interested in mining properties together with County Recorder Deiterich and Mr. Gates. The gentlemen set about work without any hurrah and instead of doing a lot of talking, set up a small smelter near their properties. The first brick that was placed in the smelter went out with the fire and many supposed that the affair was a failure. Instead of being discouraged, they sent to Denver for smelter brick and relined the furnace.

Monday everything was in readiness and the fires turned on. That evening about five tons of rock was worked through the smelter with a result that a number of very substantial bars are now in the hands of the owners.

The bars as they come from the smelter are practically separated. The lead, silver and copper being in separate bars. One bar in particular is composed of pure silver and is a sight for the "knockers" of this county to gaze upon. All of the bullion turned out is of high grade and places the experimental run on a footing that bids big things for this section.

Mr. Root, who lately returned from the East, has ordered a twenty-five ton smelter, which will be erected early in the spring. This is strictly a corporation plant, and is not intended for custom work, however custom rock will be purchased at the site and will give the prospectors a chance to dispose of their ores.

The most important piece of the program is the mine end of the affair. All the rock worked comes from this country. The lead and silver being extracted from the Bismark claim, situated south of this city. The copper gold ores come from the Barrett property in the Pinetree range. The two making ideal fluxing ores, as shown by the results from the smelter.

The Bismark is without doubt one of the best mining properties in Western Nevada. The ground has been held by Al. Livingston for twenty years and has been granted a patent on the claims. When Mr. Livingston was approached as to the price of the ground he did not raise the investors out of their boots, but placed the property on easy term payments and at a reasonable figure, with the result that the new people have taken hold of it with all indications of a great piece of property. They opened up the old workings, and with a little prospecting uncovered a great deposit of silver lead ore on the hundred foot level. Some of this ore runs as high as 600 ounces in silver with a heavy percent of lead. Work is being prosecuted at the mine and it looks better today than even the purchasers expected or anticipated. This property is beyond the stage of a prospect and can be classed as the only real mine in the county.

The Barrett property is showing up some excellent copper gold rock. Some of the assays run into the hundreds of dollars, while on a whole it is one of the best discoveries in that section.

It is the intention of the owners to erect the new smelter at the hot springs, across the river from McTarnahams bridge. This is but a short distance from the claims and will bring the cost of transportation down considerably. In the same neighborhood are several valuable pieces of property controlled by the smelter people, which as a whole make a very desirable piece of ground and an industry that promises more for this county in a mining way than anything that has been undertaken since the discovery of metal in this particular belt. The fact that the new people are not asking a cent from the town people, but are paying their bills and asking favors from no one, is one of the best indications that they know their business and have confidence in their venture. It is the beginning of a general mining revival in Ormsby.

WASHINGTON, D. C. Feb. 8.—The Interior Department has temporarily withdrawn from all forms of disposal 345,000 acres of land, located in the Carson and Walker Lake districts of Nevada. This action is taken on account of the Carson-Truckee irrigation project and is but the forerunner of the additional reclamation work now under consideration by the Government in the arid State of Nevada. The official announcement of the withdrawal was sent by the department today to the officials in charge of the work in Nevada.

Black Patti's Troubadours.

There has been no theatrical hit in New York or in fact in America since Florodora equal to that scored by Voicel & Nolan's "Greater Black Patti's Troubadours."

Their recent triumph at the metropolis of the Western Hemisphere, was in some respects unequalled and of a sensational kind.

This unexcelled company will appear at the Opera House next Thursday night, Feb. 16, the Georgia Harper company kindly giving way to Black Patti.

Brands Story Malicious Lie.

A telegram was received from Ke Pittman, the well known mining man last evening stating that he has no been expelled from the Tonopah Steel Exchange for the very good reason that he was never a member of the body.

The Journal a few days ago received a telegram stating that Mr. Pittman had been expelled from the Exchange. The item gave no reason for the action and at the time it was impossible to either confirm or deny the item. It was published as news. When Mr. Pittman's telegram was received last evening an effort was made to communicate with the Journal's special representative who is now at Tonopah. As soon as a report is received from there full details of the truth or falsity of the report will be published. In the meantime The Journal will again state, as it did in the news item, that Mr. Pittman has always been looked upon as one of Tonopah's most enterprising and reliable mining men, his actions have always been honest and open and no one has ever questioned his integrity.

The Journal regrets having been a party to the circulation of the erroneous report and will use every endeavor to correct the injury that has been done to Mr. Pittman.—Journal.

Looks Very Favorable.

Charles D. Lane and son, Louis, arrived yesterday from California and, accompanied by Superintendent McKinty, visited the new ore body in the Ophir. Asked as to his opinion of the ore body in the Ophir. Asked as to his opinion of the ore discovery he said it looked very favorable. Mr. Lane is one of the most prominent mining men on the coast and his conservative view will carry much weight.—Enterprise.

Change of Management.

The Arlington Hotel, one of the best known and most popular houses on the Pacific coast has gone into the hands of Mr. Louis Bevier. Mr. Bevier is an old hand at hotel management, and knows the wants of every visitor, be he a resident of Nevada or the Orient. It is the intention of Mr. Bevier to make a number of improvements in the hotel and conduct it on the most modern methods.

Patrons are assured of the best care and treatment at the hotel, as the new head of affairs has served his time in the business in a dozen cities in the Union. Louis is too well known in Carson to need any introduction and a visitor at the hotel will find him on deck looking after all the minor details that go to make a hotel a place of luxury.

George Morris in Trouble.

George Morris, a young man who formerly lived in this city, is wanted by the Truckee authorities for robbing the Truckee express office of $1200, jewelry and other valuables some months ago.

The young man has been employed as an assistant to Mr. Winters the regular Wells Fargo Agent, and while in this capacity robbed the safe of the amount stated. After the cash was missing a close watch was kept upon the young man and a constable went through him in Alameda a few days ago and found the missing cash.

Morris related a story to the effect that his wife had given him the cash before leaving Truckee, but when the young woman was asked about the matter she absolutely denied it, thus fixing the theft upon Morris.

The theft baffled the Wells Fargo people for some time and it was only by a thorough investigation and a long watch that the youth was run to cover. Morris, after returning to Truckee and giving over to Mr. Winters and the Company the articles and coin he had stolen, disappeared and has not yet been found. His mother, who formerly lived in this city, has stated that he is under age and that she will use her endeavors to keep the officers off his trail.

George Morris lived with his mother in Carson a couple of years ago and will be remembered as the boy who came from Truckee a year or so ago with a young girl with whom he had eloped. The officers received telegrams not to issue a license to them as they were both under age and the parents of the girl opposed the match. They went to Genoa, but were forestalled but finally wandered down to Dayton where they were wedded. They then returned to Truckee where Morris has been employed ever since.

Miss Georgia Harper in Camille.

The wonderful story of Camille, Alexander Dumas, Jr.'s conception of the most remarkable character ever created in fiction, is best interpreted by the Georgia Harper Company. Miss Georgia Harper has well been termed a born actress, and in Camille she best verifies the truth of this statement. A woman of the world stricken with pure love sacrifices everything for Armand Duval, the object of her affection, and then for his sake, at the request of his father, she even sacrifices her life for him. No greater demonstration was ever given of the power of love, and no greater sacrifice was ever made than that of Camille. Miss Harper is Camille from the rising of the curtain to the death scene as the curtain goes down on the last act. Her work is so realistic that it is long after the play is over until one can convince one's self that it is only a play and not real life presented. It is safe to say that Miss Harper has not a superior as Camille on the American, or any other stage. In this great play, especially staged and costumed for her, she is supported by one of the strongest companies that could be organized. Mr. Detrick as Armand Duval ranks next to Miss Harper as an actor, and Mr. J. G. Harper as the elder Duval is especially strong in the support.—Portland, Ore., Oregonian.

A Pleasant Gathering.

Ill health caused John Ney, a prospector to shoot himself at Rose Springs twelve miles north of Goldfield last week. His son was with him at the time but absent from the camp.

Tom McDonnell, who was arrested in Reno about a week ago and released upon order of the Goldfield authorities who caused his arrest, has been discharged from custody at Truckee, where he was taken in charge after he left Reno for attempting to cash an express order issued in favor of James Jones, who is wanted at Goldfield for robbery. Before being discharged McDonnell made a clean confession, but as there was no charge against him the Truckee officers concluded to drop the case.

No pen can possibly picture the artistic and nobby looks of an "International" garment. The dash and style are too subtle to be caught with truth by pen or pencil. We can give you some sort of an idea of their looks in our book of fashions, but for the real living expression of a custom-made suit, you must see it on the wearer.

Price makes no difference. We make suits all the way from $12 to $40. Every suit is cut with the same dash and style. As the figures grow the quality increases, but a low-priced "International" suit is oftentimes the other fellow's best.
